cable replaced the old one connecting The cable replaced the old one connecting the Fire Department with the big institutions on Randall's and Ward's Islands. The distance from Randall's Island across the Bronx Kills to the foot of St. Ann's avenue, where the cable was to land, is 600 feet. The new cable was stretched out on the Island. A rope 1,000 feet in length was attached to it and one and carried to St. Ann's avenue.

Superintendent Blackwell, of the Telegraph Burean, was in charge of the work. A locomotive standing on the railroad tracks inspired him with an idea.

The railroad track is at right angles to the direction in which the cable was to be stretched, but workmen rigged up blocks and tackje.
